

It is important that all pupils gain an understanding of the world they are growing up in, and learn how to live alongside, and show respect for, a diverse range of people.

‘No Outsiders’ is a recommended resource to teach pupils to respect and accept difference and diversity using the Equality Act 2010 (British Law) as a solid foundation. It promotes a proactive approach to bullying, teaches British Values, reduces potential for radicalisation and prepares children for life in Modern Britain.

Aims:

- Promote equality of opportunity in schools and prevent discrimination.
- Teach children about the Equality Act 2010.
- Create a positive culture in the school where all groups of people are welcome.
- Teach children to feel comfortable in themselves while recognising and celebrating difference and diversity in others.
- Prepare children to leave primary school happy and excited about living in a community full of difference and diversity.
- To contribute positively to society and life in Britain as they grow up.

How is it taught?

- 35 picture books: 5 in each year group from EYFS to Y6.
- Picture books deal with all equalities in the Equality Act (race, religion, gender, gender identity including transgender, age, disability, sexual orientation)
- Each characteristic is taught in context with British Law.
- Creates and develops a whole school ethos.
